

15 June 1978

Top GOP leader aids Horton

George Bush, former director of the Central Intelligence Agency and chairman of the Republican National Committee, will be in Winston-Salem June 23 in behalf of Ham Horton's campaign for Congress.

Bush, whose credits include two terms in Congress from Texas's 7th District, two years as ambassador to the United Nations and member of President Nixon's cabinet, two years as the chief of the U.S. Liaison Office to the People's Republic of China, and four decorations as a naval combat flier in World War II, will hold a press conference, tour Old Salem, attend two receptions and a rally for new voters with Horton before leaving.

Bush will hold a press conference at 3:15 p.m. in Kernersville. Afterwards, he and Horton will hold a walking tour of Old Salem.

From 6:30 to 7:30, he and Horton will be at a reception in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Hartgrove of King in Stokes County. They will return to Winston-Salem and the club house of the Franciscan Terrace Apartments on N.C. 150 South for the rally for new voters sponsored by the Forsyth County Young Republicans. At 8:30 they will go to another reception to be held in a Winston-Salem home.